BARGAINING UNITS
DETERMINED BY ONTARIO
LABOUR RELATIONS BOARD
APRIL 1966 - MARCH 1967

RESEARCH BRANCH

AUGUST 31, 1967.

INTRODUCTION

This year, as in previous years, the source material for the compilation of bargaining units determined by the Ontario Labour Relations Board are the Monthly Reports of the Board for April 1966 to March 1967. The main breakdown is by applicant union and the table of contents gives the short names of unions, as stated in "Labour Organizations in Canada 1966", published by the Department of Labour, Ottawa.

An occupation index makes reference to inclusions and exclusions from all units determined by the Board except for those in the standard industrial unit which is stated as

"all employees of the respondent in.....
save and except foremen, persons above
the rank of foreman, office and sales staff, persons regularly employed for not more than 24 hours per week, and students employed during the school vacation period".

It is understood that part-time workers and students are only specifically excluded when persons in these Industrial unit which is stated as "all employees of the respondent in... save and except foremen, persons above the rank of foreman, office and sales staff, persons regularly employed for not more than 24 hours per week, and students employed during the school vacation period". It is understood that part-time workers and students are only specifically excluded when persons in these categories are employed in the proposed bargaining unit. Entries are not made in the index for security guards excluded from bargaining units of other employees as this is a requirement of the Labour Relations Act.

This document is designed to be used in conjunction with files of the Board, and for this reason is confidential to persons having access to these files.
